

The Army of Compassion ...Saving Lives, Every Day

The Salvation Army shoulders one of the biggest responsibilities in the world today — to offer assistance to those in need and to provide people of all ages with the opportunity to grow, learn and become self-sufficient individuals in a challenging society. The task is overwhelming, but the rewards are tremendous.

For the 10th year in a row, The Salvation Army is the No.1 choice of donors in America. Highly regarded as providing one of the most cost-effective ratios of income to administration, The Salvation Army continues its compassionate tradition in meeting needs in the community.
